

Economic Growth in Theory and Practice: A Kaldorian Perspective (International Library of Critical Writings in Economics)

These 52 articles on and by Nicholas Kaldor concentrate on his theoretical and applied economic growth. This volume features biographical sketches, Kaldor's early contributions to steady-state growth theory, his long flirtation with Verdoorn's Law, and the last stage of his thinking on growth, concentrating on world economy models of increasing returns and export-constrained growth. Contributors include: M. Chatterji, G.C. Harcourt, N. Kaldor, R.E. Rowthorn and A.P. Thirlwall.
