

The Elf War

Thousands of years in our past Light Elves fled to our world pursued by the Dark Elves. They stayed here until we began to use iron in large quantities. Keeping to the unwritten law that Elves do not harm Elves, they moved on, taking Neanderthal man with them when the Dokkalfar opened a rift into our world. The Ljosalfar are pacifists and have managed to evade the Dark Elves who would indulge in their cannibalistic tendencies once they had the Light Elves in their power. Now after thousands of years have gone by the Dokkalfar have found the Ljosalfar again, on another parallel Earth. They have been trying to pierce the poisoned brier, grown by the Ljosalfar for two centuries, inside the great gorge, entrance to the lands of the dinosaurs. At the center of this giant crater are the Ljosalfar who live inside a castle with small towns spreading down the mountainside. After getting the High Kings daughter pregnant, the punishment meted out to an elf called Peterkin sets in motion a chain of events that propels him into the annals of history. He becomes the legend foretold by a dwarf dreamseer long ago after Abaddon the Dark Lord and his forces killed and ate a thousand dwarves before the brier closed.
