

Isaac Rooks Trailwalker

There are two men that are very different and very alike at the same time. They exist side by side in two great universes that are also very different and very alike. The universes are parallel and lives are also that way. What is going on in one is mirrored in another. Twenty two years ago an event occurred the night of their birth-a gate opened between the two universes. A baby boy who should have been born an Edenite was suddenly an Earthling. A baby boy who should have been an Earthling was suddenly an Edenite. The future belongs to whoever can find his true self. Isaac Rooks lies beside his campfire in the deep woods of the Southeastern part of North America. He falls asleep and when he is suddenly awakened he spends his last moments of life on planet Earth. The following morning he finds himself in another universe on the planet Eden. It is the mirror image of Earth and in the days ahead he comes to realize he feels more at home on Eden than he ever did back on Earth. Eventually Isaac realizes he is no longer Isaac Rooks. He is Jack Trailwalker and begins to understand that he has now taken up his true life. When he meets the beautiful Isabella Starr she agrees to assist him in his mission. Together they uncover the sinister plot that has catapulted his mirror image and him across the void. Danger is before him as evil has reared its ugly head on this peaceful world of Eden. Now that Jack Trailwalker has left earth and his life as Isaac Rooks behind he must search out and destroy the evil discord spreading across his new world. It will take all of his strength and courage to put a stop to an evil plan in progress for over twenty years. He has great allies in the supernatural beings that transported him to Eden and in the end it will be their strength added to his that may yet defeat a powerful and evil adversary. Across the void in the parallel universe of Eden Jack Trailwalker breaks away from his mirror image of Isaac
