

Our Church Music: A Book for Pastors and People (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Our Church Music: A Book for Pastors and People
It is Sunday morning. We are near a place of worship: let us enter. The assembled people are just engaging in an act of divine homage - a song of praise has been announced, and the music is arising. In what words is this act of homage embodied? -Great God! how infinite art Thou!What worthless worms are we!Let the whole race of Adam bowAnd pay their praise to Thee.Thy throne eternal ages stood,Ere seas or stars were made:Thou art the ever-living God,Were all the nations dead.Our lives through varied scenes are drawn,And vexed with trifling cares,While Thine eternal thought moves onThine undisturbed affairs.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
