

The Family Dog Handbook

Having a dog is a lifetime commitment. Or at least a commitment you should keep as long as your dog lives. When you adopt a dog, it becomes your responsibility, whether you are in the mood to take good care of it or not. Not a few dog owners leave their dogs tied to their chains unattended, day in, day out. Imagine how bored you would be if you have nothing to do, nowhere to go, every day, for the rest of your life. It isn't fun. It's not fun particularly for pets who love to run around, play around, and have fun. This comprehensive handbook will help you to know: 1) Where to find your new dog. 2) Factors to consider before you choose your pet. 3) Basic training i.e. sit, stay, etc. 4) How to read your dog's body language. 5) Tips on how to prepare your home. 6) How to deal with pet emergencies; Take a peek inside and you will find out everything you need to know to about: Learn how to welcome your new pet into his new home. Find out everything you need to know about feeding. Discover the best choices for your family. How to travel with your new pet.
