Aimed at readers aged 7-13 years, the magical adventures of Flame, Marina, Ash and Ariel have sold over 500,000 copies. Piccadilly Press published the first five titles in the UK. This second edition, with its new look jacket design, is published by Sheridan Winn. The four Sprite Sisters - Flame, Marina, Ash and Ariel - live at Sprite Towers, deep in the Norfolk countryside. Each sister has a magic power related to one of the four elements of Fire, Water, Earth & Air. When they work together and are in balance, their magic is strong - but being sisters, things are not always so simple. When Ariel discovers her power of Air on her ninth birthday, their circle of power is complete. The girls' magic must be kept secret, and used only for good. If not, the consequences could be dire. The Sprites' big house in the country is full of laughter and sunshine, but a shadow is falling. Everything the Sprite Sisters hold dear will soon be shattered by the arrival of someone who is intent on destroying their power . . .
